

Out of the Wilds and into Your Garden - 2017
California Native Plants for Western L.A. County Gardens

Gardena Mayme Dear Library – Tuesdays, 6:00-7:45 p.m.

1731 West Gardena Blvd., Gardena
 (310) 217-0681

| Date / 2017          | Topic  |
|----------------------|--|
| Tues. - Jan. 10      | Beautiful Bowls: containers for color through the year  |
| Tues. – Feb. 7       | Foreground, Mid-Ground &amp; Background: vertical space and the well-designed garden.   |
| Tues. – Mar. 7       | The Gentle Art of Espalier: growing trees and large shrubs in narrow spaces   |
| Tues. – Apr. 4       | Birds on a (Space) Budget: attracting birds in a small garden   |
| Tues. - May 9        | Peculiar Pollinators: wasps and other unusual pollinators and beneficial insects  |
| Tues. - June 6       | Perfect Pathways: how to design, build and maintain garden pathways   |
| No Class – July 4th  | Magic Dragons: common dragonflies and how to attract them.Classes at Madrona Nature Center Sat. - July 1 (10:00 am); Th – July 6 (6:30 pm) |
| Tues. – Aug. 8       | More Water Feature Ideas for the home garden  |
| SeptemberOctober | No classes   |
| Tues. – Nov. 7       | Crawly Critters: common reptiles & amphibians of local gardens and their habitats   |
| Tues. – Dec. 5       | Leroy Abrams and his Los Angeles flora: unique L.A. County plants for the small garden  |